to our patrons . . .

Remember the gnomes, Hammacher and Schlemmer (named for our esteemed founders)? Your grand- parents would. They were the gremlins of their day who tidied the house, fixed everything. They're still around — in superb new surroundings and several com- pletely new departments—seven selling floors of unique and beautiful house-furnishings — many of which you will find on the following pages.

In widely amplifying the facilities of this fine firm, we feel that the most considerate and complete service will be provided you as clients and friends of Hammacher Schlemmer. Also, we would like to say, that in entering a new phase of its century-old tradition—plus ça change, plus c'est la même chose.

Please do us the honor of reminding us of your old or new favorites so that we may have them in store for you.

Our mail order department will promptly fill your requests. On your personal visits to our newly decorated store, a warm welcome awaits you.

Sincerely,

John Gerald
